Understood Better Each Day

The most successful business plan is the one who knows every detail of his business and does not depend upon a pull for his success. Each day this is better understood. In no business is a detailed knowledge more essential than in the Building Trade. If you want an estimate on any work in this line, I'll be pleased to give you the benefit of my many years experience.

The Bulletin's Pattern Service.

MISSIE'S AND GIRLS' SACK APRON.
Paris Pattern No. 2730 - All Seams Allowed.

Made up in plain colored chambray or plain, checked or figured gingham, this is a most serviceable garment for the young girl. The apron is loose and comfortable, completely covering the dress and therefore protecting it from dirt. The lower edge is finished with a deep hem and the back is fastened with small pearl buttons. The upper edge is gathered into the low round collar and the full sleeves are gathered into cuffs of the material. If desired, the upper edge may be cut out in low-neck outline and oversewns may be used instead of the long sleeves. A wide, square pocket, ornaments may be added to the way from it, but now will be omitted if desired.

The pattern is in six sizes - 4 to 14 years. For a girl of 10 years the apron, as in front view, requires 2 1/2 yards of material 25 inches wide; for 12 years, 3 yards; for 14 years, 3 1/2 yards. Including oversews, it needs 1/2 yard 25 inches wide or 2 1/2 yards 36 inches wide.

Price of pattern, 16 cents. Order through Bulletin Company, Pattern Dept., Norwich, Conn.

Rival Sound Ports.
The wharf fire at New London has been followed by the temporary transfer of the eastern terminus of the Norwich Line to Stonington, an event of much interest in the latter town, which lost its New York steamers some years ago through consolidation with the line of New London. The old Stonington Line dated from 1837, and with the exception of a short time before the civil war, was continuously operated for two generations. New London was inclined to poke fun at the smaller town when the Maine and New Hampshire were taken away from it, but now with the wharf on the Thames destroyed, affairs wear a different aspect. It is not supposed that the Stonington Line will permanently replace the Norwich Line, but until the boats return to New London it will be natural for the town to look forward to some good-natured chaffing. Providence Journal.

A Working Library.
Librarian Thelma Kinsman can extend the service of the state library so that legislators may have at their fingers' ends facts relating to current legislation in other states. He can even add to his service so as to issue bulletins at intervals to the legislators including these facts. But it will take more funds. The library has never been furnished with a large staff. This has been kept busy and it has developed into a valuable library for a worker in state affairs. The state library of Wisconsin has been extended until it is something like a university extension course. If that is what is demanded it will not be difficult to secure it. - Boston Record.

Mother Knows.

BEAUTIFUL CHARITY

At Meriden Hospital—Nobody Knows Patients Receiving It.
There are two free beds at the Meriden hospital, one for men and the other for women. Patients are admitted to them on the proper application and recommendation whenever there is a vacancy. No special beds are used for this purpose, as it is not the intention that any of the other patients should be inconvenienced by the presence of a charity patient.
One of these beds is given by the vote of the hospital directors and has been established a dozen years or so. The other one is maintained by a fund created by the ladies' hospital committee, something like $5,000 being raised by them.

The cup bears the following inscription: "From Dorco Council, No. 24, R. and S. M., to Horace W. Eddy, Third Illustrious Master, New Britain, Conn., February 10, 1909."

Salvation Army to Build.

At Bridgeport the Salvation Army will build a new barracks on the north side of Elm street, a short distance west of Main. The property is to be purchased for $7,000 and the army will put $2,000 down and work off the balance. When the land is clear of debt, a $15,000 barracks will be constructed.

At Derby, while Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Crowe were away Friday evening their home on Seymour avenue was entered and thoroughly ransacked by burglars, who secured about $800 in cash, jewelry and other articles.
